MEDICINAL.

LIGHT AND DARK.

Day and night, sunshine and shadow are not more different from each other than a healthy woman from a sickly woman. The healthy woman carries light and sunshine with her wherever she goes. The woman who suffers from ill-health casts a shadow on her own happiness and the happiness of others. She cannot help it. Those who suffer from ill-health can help it. Ill-health in woman is generally traceable to disease of the delicate womanly organism. Many women have been restored to happiness by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

"I feel it my duty to inform you that I had been a sufferer for many years from nervousness with all its symptoms and complications," writes Mrs. O. N. Fisher, of 1601 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y. "I was rapidly going to the grave, and I was told by a friend to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After taking one bottle and following your advice I was so encouraged that I took two more bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and then I did not take any more for several weeks as I felt so much better, but still I was not completely cured. I commenced taking it again and felt that I was improving faster than at first. I am now more robust and healthy than I have been for years. I have gained about ten pounds in weight and am now a healthy woman. I feel that I am a new woman once more."

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines. His profit is your loss, therefore accept no substitute. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send at once one-cent stamps for the paper-covered book, or 11 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

McLAURIN IN ANOTHER ROW.

Senator McLauren figured in another bit of engagement in Washington yesterday, the row, it is supposed, having its origin in the political situation in South Carolina. His antagonist on this occasion was W. A. W. Gates, proprietor of the Mansion House at Greenville, S. C. The Senator and Mr. Gates accompanied by Mr. Louis

Blaylock, a prominent politician of that State, strolled into the buffet of the Raleigh Hotel, Washington, about 8.30 o'clock last night, apparently on the best of terms. As they reached a point opposite the news stand near the Pennsylvania Avenue entrance to the hotel the air of good-fellowship in some unexplained manner was changed and a sudden anger suddenly emanated from both. W. A. W. Gates, evidently prompted by a remark made by Mr. Gates, six feet two inches tall, and weighing 175 pounds, turned off his coat and walked toward Senator McLauren in an attempt to land blows on his face.

The two men clinched and the superior weight of the hotelkeeper from South Carolina placed Senator McLauren at a disadvantage, but he managed to break away. Mr. Blaylock, who had stood by the Senator, the unexpected struggle, rushed between them. Senator McLauren, now recovered from the astonishment of the onslaught, was starting to rush at his assailant, and Gates was endeavoring to get past Blaylock. Bystanders from the hotel rushed in to stop the cause of the trouble, and the stream of pedestrians outside began to flow through the hotel doors. The manager of the Raleigh came dashing through the door, and grasping Senator McLauren by the arm, hurried him down a narrow stairway into the rathskeller. The Senator was evidently angered to the blood-boiling point but he was anxious to avoid trouble, and immediately left the hotel. Gates to the meeting was at a white heat and was struggling manfully to be released in order to follow the Senator but he was prevented from doing so by Mr. Blaylock. No one around the hotel knew just what precipitated the trouble. The persons in the hotel who knew either Senator McLauren or Mr. Gates, the latter of whom has been staying there since Monday, were disinclined to talk about the affair, but it is generally understood that it was the outgrowth of old trouble which involves to a certain extent the political situation in South Carolina. None of the blows struck landed on the face of either Senator McLauren or Mr. Gates. Senator McLauren carried a cane in his hand, but did not use it in the fight. After leaving the hotel he walked rapidly away, but evidently did not return to his home on East Capitol Street as he could not be found there at a late hour. Mr. Gates absolutely refused to tell the origin of the trouble and later took a train for his home. Senator McLauren stated that the man with whom he had trouble had become offensive to him while he was in the Raleigh dining room. That when he (the Senator) left the table and went to the news stand in the lobby to purchase a cigar the man followed him. He studiously avoided calling his antagonist's name and would not say who the man was.

WHITECAPS CAUSE TERROR.—Whitecaps have again appeared in Simpson county, Miss., and are carrying on a reign of terror among the negroes. A band of the whitecaps visited the home of a negro named Jim Steele, in the Westville neighborhood, knocked him down with clubs, and whipped him to the point of death. Steele says he knows who his assailants were, but is afraid to tell, fearing further results.

Another report is that a negro named Pardo was given a severe beating for his insolence. While the whipping was in progress May made a break for liberty, and one of the party fled at him with a shotgun, several shots taking effect in the back, from the effects of which he died in a few hours. All the parties who participated in the affair are well known, but no arrests have been made.

COLD WEATHER IN NEW YORK.—Unusually cold weather and high winds prevailed throughout northern and western New York yesterday. In Wayne county the wind and rain stripped fruit trees of their blossoms, causing damage estimated at $50,000. A similar report comes from Baltimore. At Buffalo the temperature at 8 a. m. was 38 degrees, and a slight fall of snow occurred. The mercury dropped thirty degrees throughout the Adirondack region Thursday night. Yesterday morning snow fell to the depth of two or three inches at Lyon Mountain and other points in northern New York and northern Vermont. A high wind was blowing.

DIES OF APPENDICITIS.—A forcible post-mortem examination of the body of Donald Eller, son of ex-Judge J. W.

science healer, the father refusing, it is alleged, to call a physician. Dr. Laverder, who conducted the examination, reports that the boy died of peritonitis, induced by appendicitis, and says his life could have been saved had he received proper medical attention.

Whooping Cough.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: "Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup before she would take any other." One Minute Cough Cure will set you right. Sure cure for coughs, cold, croup, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Acts at once. Children like it. "One Minute Cough Cure is the best cough medicine I ever used," says J. W. Bowles, Groverton, N. H. "I never found anything else that acted so safely and quickly. For sale by E. & L. Leadbeater & Sons."

Don't Start Wrong.

Don't start the summer with a lingering cough or cold. We all know what a "summer cold" is. It's the hardest kind to cure. Often it "hangs on" through the entire season. Take it in hand right now. A few doses of One Minute Cough Cure will set you right. Sure cure for coughs, cold, croup, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Acts at once. Children like it. "One Minute Cough Cure is the best cough medicine I ever used," says J. W. Bowles, Groverton, N. H. "I never found anything else that acted so safely and quickly. For sale by E. & L. Leadbeater & Sons."
